

ABA Legal Education Police Practices Consortium Fellowship

The ABA's Legal Education Police Practices Consortium (LEPPC) Fellowship is accepting applications for its 2025-2026 Fellowship! If you are a current 1L or 2L student at a Consortium-member law school, you are eligible to apply for this national program where you will undertake research of police practices, learn how to engage with your community, and collaborate with students from law schools across the country. To apply, follow the steps below:

1

Review the LEPPC website Fellowship page.

Consult the Fellowship Learning Goals and program application to learn more about the yearlong program.

Connect with a faculty member or Dean at your law school.

This faculty member will ensure you meet any requirements your school has for obtaining credit and be part of the team that supervises your work for the fellowship, along with the Fellowship Director and Post-Graduate Fellow.

3

Determine how you will participate. As...

a directed or independent study.

an internship or externship.

a research assistant.

4

Submit your application.

Complete the application form and provide all required documents. Review your information and ensure that you can meet all of the program requirements.

Commit to a full year of Fellowship!

Get a head start on your work for the Fellowship by learning more about the program on its website and learning more about police practices!

If your law school is not a LEPPC member school, please contact us at abaleppc@gmail.com to learn more.
